

Pinscher Press Editor 2009

As stated in the Constitution/Bylaws, this position shall always be subject to the final authority of the GPCA Board of Directors. The Board can appoint a new editor at their discretion.

Goal: To produce a quality publication reflecting the German Pinscher Club of America, its business and the German Pinscher breed.

Objective: To provide the membership with a quality quarterly publication following the guidelines set by the GPCA Board that will inform, interest and update the readership about the German Pinscher Club of America and the German Pinscher breed.

Job Description: Determine the content of each issue from articles and reports submitted. Other tasks include editing articles, setting deadlines, inserting photographs, having the issue copied, and mailing the issue.

Deadlines: Are the tenth of each month that the PP is published. Those months are: January, April, July, and October.

Guidelines:

1. Each issue must be mailed by the last day of the month that it is published.
2. The editor must collect the monies for the ads and send it to the treasurer. The editor must keep a record of all ads placed. If the treasurer receives a payment from for an ad she must inform the editor.
3. The spring issue must have the listing of the current GPCA members unless the extension of paying membership dues is extended.
4. The spring edition should also include the application for membership.
5. Each issue shall contain a disclaimer Such as: Pinscher Press Policy

The PP is a nonprofit newsletter published quarterly. No articles may be republished without the written permission from the Pinscher Press. PP welcomes editorials, submitted articles and ads, however, Publisher's receipt of materials is not a guarantee of publication. The Publisher assumes no responsibility for the return, Loss or damage of any submitted materials. The appearance of advertising in this publication does not constitute endorsement in any way by the Pinscher Press. All submissions must be print and or photo ready and sent to editor name and address e-mailed to: editor's e-mail address or editor's telephone number.

If any ad or article is to be returned, it must be received with proper return postage and address.

