

Additional Breeder's List Rules

1. The Board has the right to refuse any listing or listing request.
2. No listing will be given if payment has not been received in full.
3. Breeders agree to follow all current guidelines and rules to obtain and maintain a listing throughout the calendar year.
4. Breeders agree to abide by changes made to the guidelines/rules during the calendar year as a result of a Board decision, by a full legal vote of the Board and those guidelines or rules that may be presented and passed by a legal vote of the membership.
5. Breeders listed on the GPCA Breeders list will, if they choose to include the breed standard on their personal website, accept and include the current approved AKC Breed Standard and will not include statements that are in direct contradiction to the current breed standard, nor personal interpretations of the current breed standard. Website owners may include the breed standard from the country of origin or other registries approved breed standard for the purpose of information. Breeders on the GPCA Breeders List will accept revisions to the AKC breed standard by a legal vote of the membership and will make corrections to their personal websites to reflect any breed standard revisions so passed by the GPCA membership.
6. Owners of websites found not to be in compliance with any GPCA Breeders List Guidelines and Rules, will have their hotlink disabled and will be notified of the information on their personal website that is not in compliance with GPCA Breeders List Guidelines and Rules. Website owners will have 60 days to revise their website to be in compliance. If, after 60 days, the owners have not corrected the website, they will forfeit their breeders listing and their kennel line listing will be removed from the GPCA website Breeders List with no recourse or refund.
7. Per Article I Section 2 of the GPCA Constitution and By Laws 2006, members and breeders who do not accept or adhere to the current AKC breed standard as an objective of the club, may be brought up on charges as per Article VI Section 2 of the GPCA Constitution and By Laws.
