

Pinscher Press Editor

As stated in the constitution/Bylaws, this committee shall always be subject to the final authority of the GPCA Board of Directors. The Board can appoint new members to the committee, appoint the chairman, and will approve members wishing to join this committee in the future.

Goal: To produce a quality publication reflecting the German Pinscher Club of America and the German Pinscher breed

Objective: To provide the membership with a quality quarterly publication following the guidelines set by the GPCA Board that will inform, interest and update the readership about the German Pinscher Club of America and the German Pinscher breed

Job Description: Determine the content of each issue from articles and reports submitted as stated in the guidelines set forth by the GPCA board.

Other tasks include editing articles, setting deadlines, inserting photographs, having the issue copied, and mailing the issue.

Deadlines: Are the tenth of each month that the PP is published. Those months are: March, June, September, and December.

By the authority of the GPCA Constitution/Bylaws, any committee member who does not follow these guidelines may be terminated by a majority vote of the full membership of the Board upon written notice to the appointee; and the Board may appoint a successor for the person whose service has been terminated.
