This contract is made by and between your name, hereinafter seller, and _____, hereinafter buyer, to provide for the subsequent care of the puppy/dog described above.

1. In exchange for the above described puppy, a monetary consideration of _____ will be given the seller. Terms of payment are: _____

2. The seller attests to the dog having no known illnesses or health deficiencies. The buyer understands that within the first week after purchasing the puppy, he/she has the option (and is encouraged by the seller) to have the puppy examined by a veterinarian of the buyers choice. And upon finding, to the buyer's dissatisfaction, any illness or health deficiency, the puppy may be returned to the seller for an exchange of another puppy or monetary refund.

3. If the puppy is returned to the seller at a later date and the puppy is resold by the seller, the buyer is entitled to the money from the resale minus the seller's expenses.
4. It is understood that this dog will not be bred without the written consent of the seller. It is further understood that this dog will not be bred without an OFA registration number certifying the dog free of hip dysplasia or be bred to a dog who does not have an OFA number.
5. It is understood that is dog will not be bred without a CERF number certifying the dog free of eye problems or bred to a dog who does not have a CERF number.
6. The buyer of this puppy agrees that if at any time he/she finds it necessary to either sell or place the puppy/dog, that the puppy/dog will be returned to the seller who will have the responsibility of placing or reselling the puppy/dog and thus relieve the buyer of further responsibility.
7. If the puppy/dog is returned to the breeder to be resold for the buyer, the buyer is entitled to the resale price minus the breeder's expenses.
